

Academic Regalia Adornment Approval Form

Student organizations or Institute-approved programs must seek approval to issue adornments to the academic regalia for their student members or participants.

Note: The Institute will use cords to designate undergraduate students who graduate with academic honors. Cords may not be used for any other designation unless by specific permission of the Office of the Provost through the Registrar. Exceptions may be granted for academic (GPA-based), distinguished national honor societies that may issue cords to their graduates.
